WE DEDICATE THIS 1946 TAHQUITZ TO OUR BIG CHIEF, E. G. GARRISON. HAVING NEARLY LOST HIM BY ILLNESS THIS YEAR, WE APPRECIATE MORE THAN EVER HIS TIRELESS EFFORTS AND WILLINGNESS TO UNDERSTAND THROUGHOUT THE YEARS. WITH THIS YEARBOOK WE STRIVE TO SHOW OUR THANKS TO A GRAND PRINCIPAL, SUPERINTENDENT AND FRIEND.

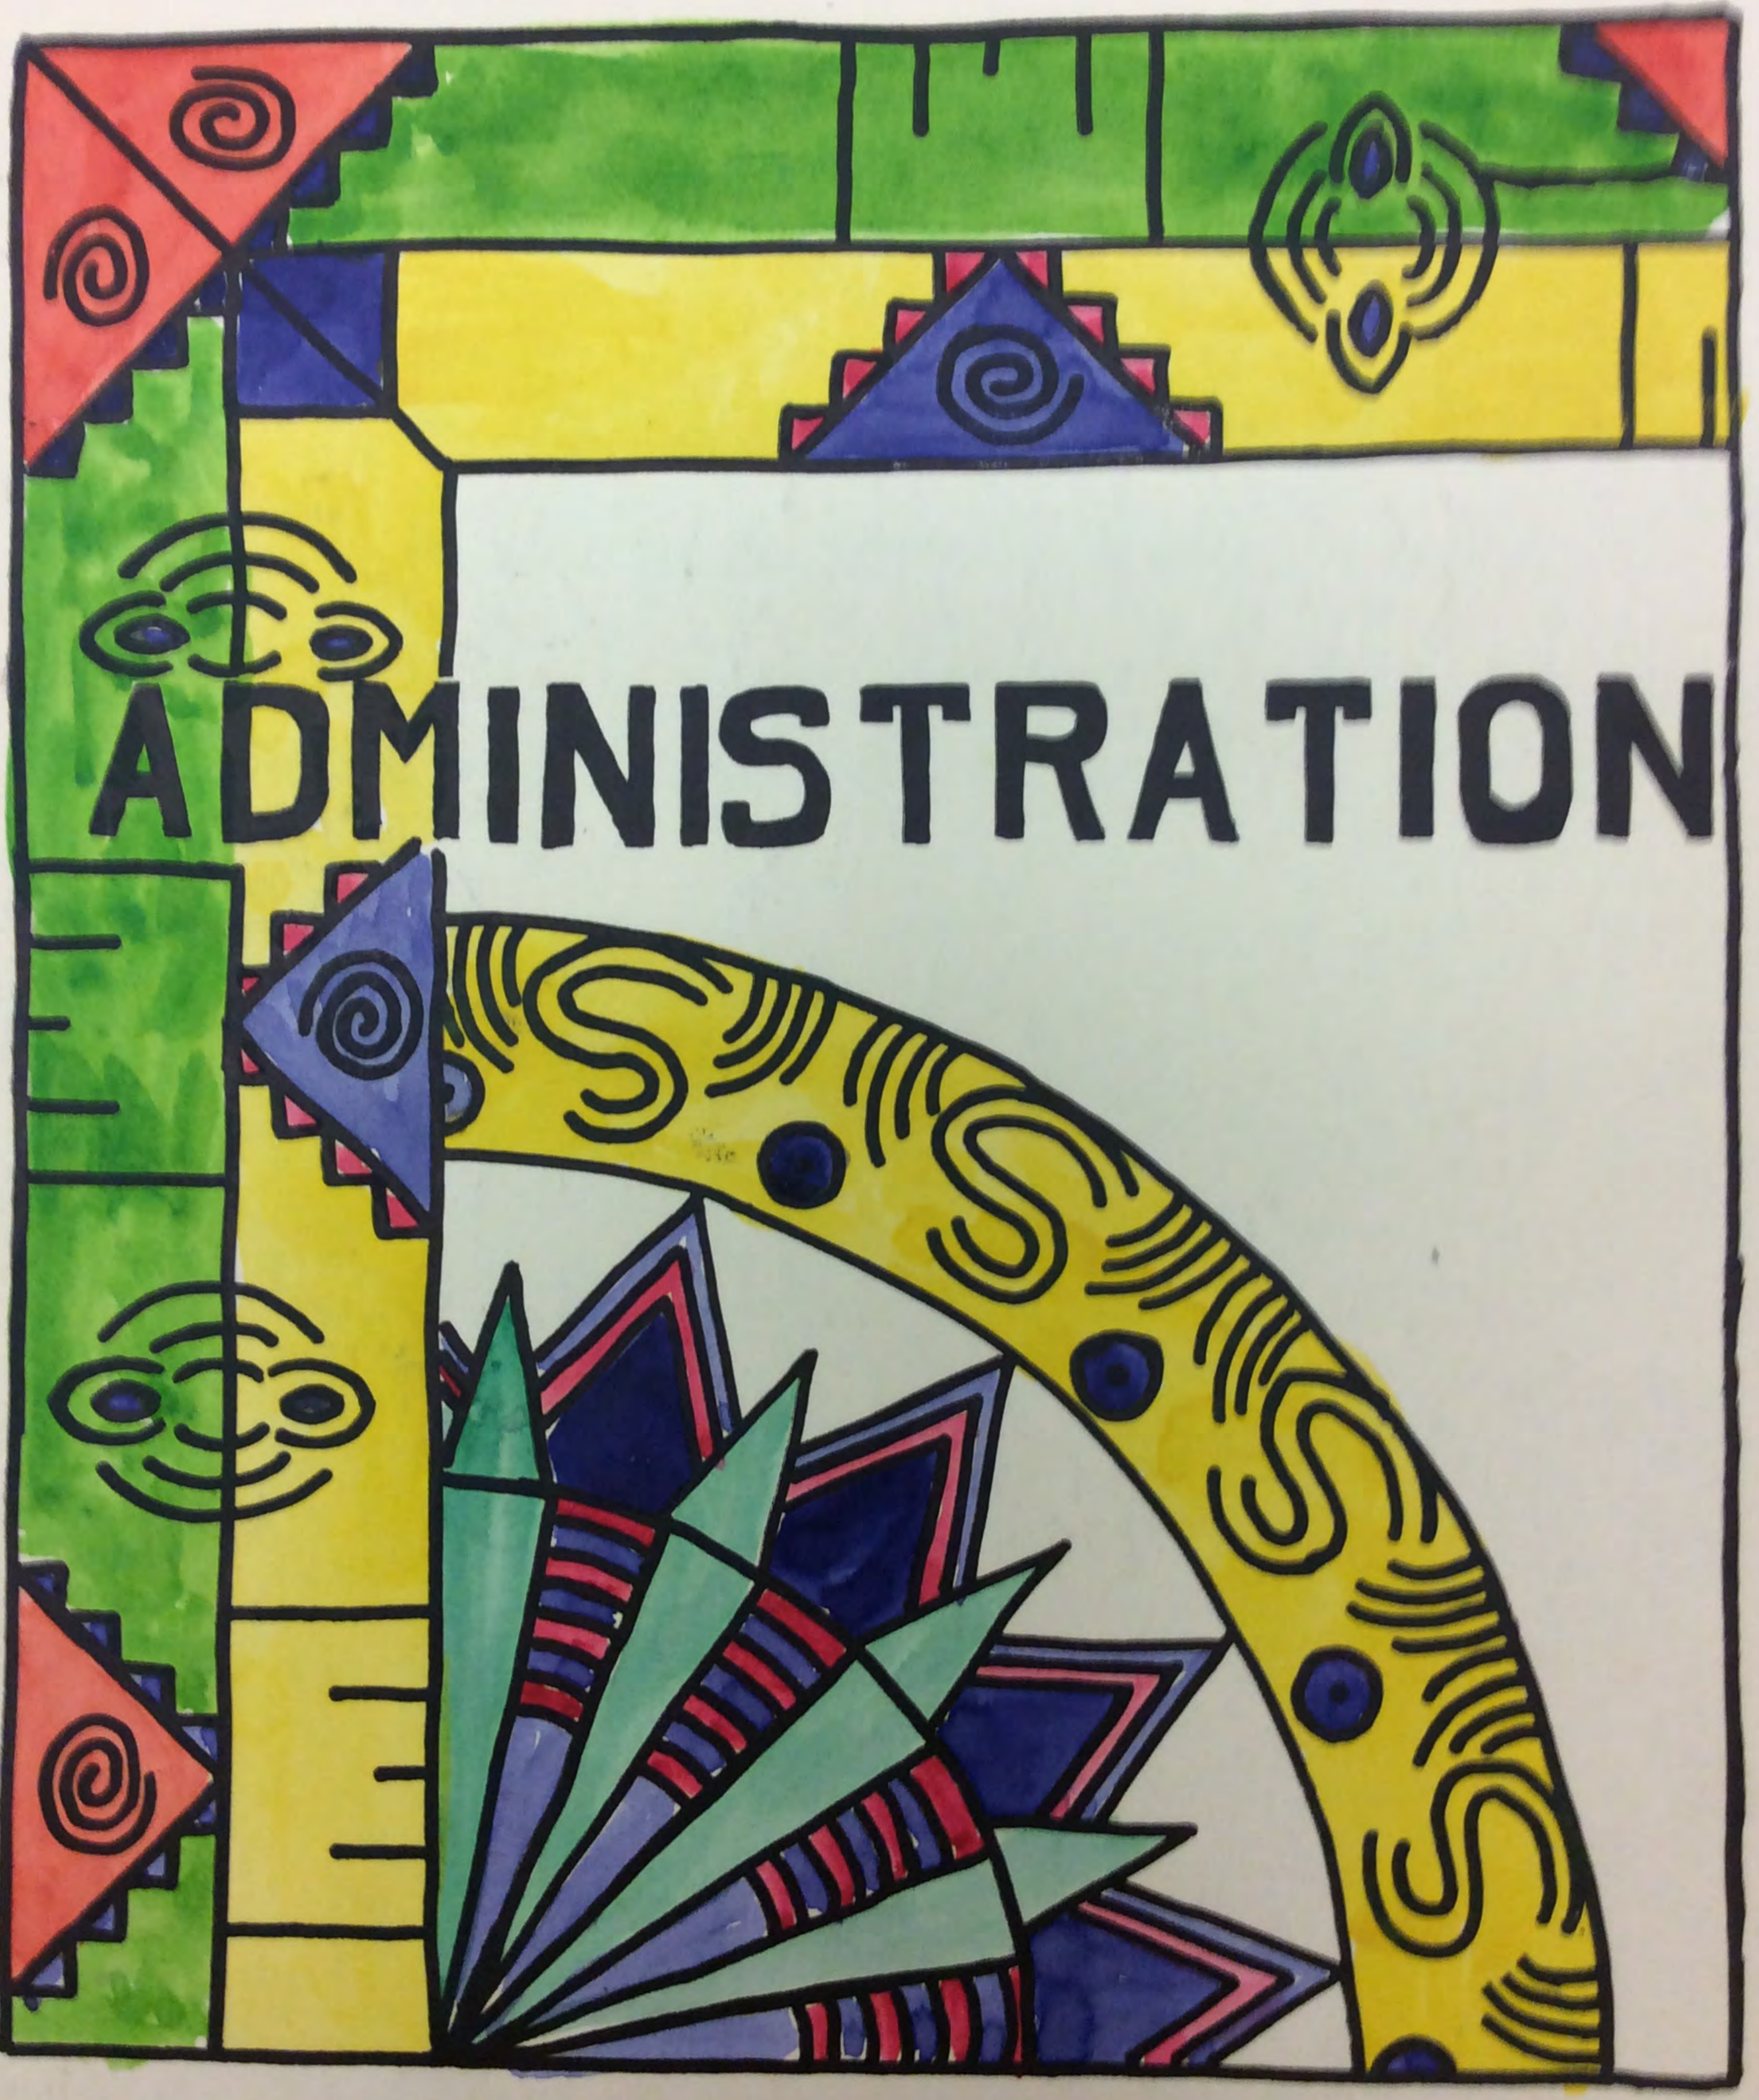

THE THEME OF THIS YEAR'S TAHQUITZ CELEBRATES THE REVIVAL OF THE RAMONA PAGEANT AFTER A LAPSE OF FOUR YEARS.

JUNIOR CLASS PARADE

Leading our junior class parade
Are SHEPPARD'S pidgeon toes,
Then "broad shouldered" BRUDIN
And BISCHOF, "the nose."
Following them are the loves of the day
BERGMAN and HENNINGER
PHILION and ULLRICH and
CAROL and BOTHNER.
Next in line are two lone maids,
GEORGIA and DIANE,
They walk alone just because
Each carries a torch for a senior man.
There's MAY and JUNE, the apple twins,
And HAYWARD in her jeans,
And MARY M. and FRANCES J.
Both afraid of deans.
There're two swell kids with darling brothers,
WANDA SPEAR and GINNIE COOK.
MARTINEZ'S speed, REBER'S blondes,
And CORBEIL'S "Besame" look.
Following her is "Swoon 'em flat" RICHARDSON
With YANCEY running close behind.
Then WILSON'S jokes and HELPER'S wit
Follow WARNER'S "superkid" mind.
There's EVIE YODER dancing her way
Into everyone's heart.
And here comes HOMAN who always yells
"Gaddap" instead of "start."
Next we see
FRECKLES and all her friends,
HUFF and MANZANO, REEVES, SWARTHOUT, TODD,
and KUYKENDALL.
There's CORY who WEBB really sends

DODY'S eyes come smiling by.
Two heads of flashing hair
Namely DOOLITTLE and SMITH,
While NORA MAE cute clothes does wear.
ROBERTS, our actress, strolls on by.
BETTIS, BOWERS, DUNCAN, OWEN and KEELER,
There's ye ed of this page HANK BURNHAM,
And from Perris comes ROSS and LEEPER.
The Merrick cousins, COLLEEN and TOMMY,
And our blondes, WASSELL and WELLS.
There's TATE—just call her "Muscles"—
And CULPEPPER who lives by bells.
Next we hear TONY'S sweet baritone
And LEA, the strong silent one,
There's the dark deep wave in ELWOOD'S hair,
And Inglewood's STEVENSON
Missouri's MANESS
STARKEY'S football shoulders
And darling MINNIE LOU.
Pass by HOOTEN who's got a Southern accent.
There's NICHOLS waiting for Kerr
And OLIVERLI'S clarinet
And TYLER, who's responsible for this,
And VAN DORSTEN, always a good bet.
Finishing off our class parade
Are HERB CLARK, DIXON and RECORDS,
RAE CLARK, the industrious one,
And JEFFERSON the arguer,
JERRY ROGERS the solemn,
And SKIPPY COSTO, glad to be back.

OUR SCALPUM SQUAD

'45 R.C.L. CHAMPS . . . This year makes the second consecutive football championship for the Hemet squad. With four returning senior lettermen, the Bulldogs glorified their record again by not being scored upon in league competition.

Coach Hueston Harper, again, as last year, showed his expert coaching ability by turning out the winning team with light and inexperienced material.

The traditional Armistice day game with San Jacinto was held on the opponents' turf. George Ross stole the honors by running up a total of one hundred and thirty-seven yards in that game.

Joe Martinez and George Ross were voted by the squad as the most outstanding football players of 1945. Consequently their names will go on the Hemet All-American trophy blanket.

Hemet high's versatile basketball crew were again tied with Elsinore, this time for the championship of the R.C.L. The first game of the 1945-46 season was played with Perris at Hemet, which the Bulldogs won 45-38. The next week the Bulldogs played their cross-town rivals, triumphing 45-38. Beaumont was next to be downed by the fast-moving quintet by the score of 41-22. Sherman was the next victim 63-27. Hemet also scored wins over Palm Springs and Banning 39-26 and 39-31.

As the season was drawing to a close, Hemet played host to the Elsinore Tigers who were also unbeaten in league competition. The Elsinore team was the victor 40-33. The last game of the season was played at Coachella, Hemet winning 32-27. In the last league game for Elsinore. The Tigers lost to Banning after three overtimes, thus ranking with Hemet as co-champs for 1946.

The Hemet "B" squad once again tied for the championship in R.C.L. basketball, making the third consecutive year that the Hemet "B" team has either won or tied for top of the league.

The "B" team won a majority of their practice games, and started the season right by defeating Perris 44-40. Next, the "B" team met its only defeat of the season by losing to the "under dog" team of San Jacinto by a score of 33-32.

The fast-moving quintet, Ullrich, Bothner, Searl, Kinkade, and Houk, then defeated Beaumont 37-24, Sherman 45-26, Banning 41-20, Palm Springs 45-22, and Elsinore 29-19. The last game, played with Coachella, was narrowly won by the Bulldogs with a score of 40-38 that entitled them to the championship and gold basketballs.
