FENCERS!

All returning fencers and new fencers please send Coach Hall an email to let him know you are interested in fencing this year. Although there are no scheduled practices or events during the current sports season, please indicate your interest so he can generate a Remind Link and/or a Google Classroom specifically for Fencing.

One for All, and All for One!

Coach Hall email: bhall@hemetusd.org

In Bulldog e-Sports, the Rocket League teams were off to a rather unusual start this week. Team A (Robert Gallegos, Ethan Nieves, and Andrew Cates) got the day off as their opponent had to forfeit due to technical difficulties. Team B (Kyle Furillo, Terrian Rios, and Marcus Price) were also unable to get their games underway due to technical issues, and are awaiting the decision from the league on a possible rematch or draw. Team C (Pablo Covarrius Sandoval, Adrian Medrano, Alex Perales, Andrew Cates (subbed for Pablo) were able to play their games and made Hemet High School proud. They showed their opponents that they are "Kings of this Doghouse" and won 3 games to None. They managed to outscore their opponents 16-1.

Our other games are starting to take off as well. Smash Brothers will soon be having a tournament for Team Placement. The same goes for Dragon Ball FighterZ. Also, in Minecraft, President Lexi Gideon and Vice-President Gavin Hill are leading the charge to create custom maps for future competitions.

The Hemet High School eSports Club is in FULL SWING and we will have plenty to report on in the future. Stay Tuned and GG Bulldogs"
