Wrestling Announcement: The Hemet Bulldogs pulled off a nail bitter in both male and female competitions. The male team lead by freshmen standout Larry "Ryder" Rhodes, seized victory in a very tight nit competition that was decided by 7-points. It was a great day for the male team as the young exuberant team earned their first victory without the support of their female counterparts. There was a great show of talent and efforts on display as Weston Holt and Zion Perez kept the crowd captivated in his heart breaking losses but showed the upside that both young freshmen have for the future of the program. The female bulldogs found very similar success. Lead by Team Captain Reyna Montenegro the female bulldogs beat their opponent by six points, securing their first female dual team win. This is the first time the female team was able to compete as a team and it was met with a huge success. The team showed true dedication and efforts as they secured their first female dual victory. Monique Moreno went on to win two match last evening in two hard fought bouts and sophomore Andie Albers took a hard loss, in what was amazing effort by a young up and coming wrestler. The team did a fantastic job and continue to impress as the boys team is back to .500 and the girls are 1-0 in competition against their female counterparts. It has been a difficult season for all sports but our Hemet Bulldog wrestlers are stay tried and true to our schools pride.

Go Bulldogs!!!
