The Hemet High School Wrestling Program took a difficult lose yesterday to Canyon Springs. Though the team lost, the junior leadership of Reyna Montenegro and Dakota Rhodes was on full display. We are changing this culture of our organization and that sometimes requires time and effort that does not always show on the scoreboard. The female athletes have taken on the task of wrestling whoever steps into their weight class and this include male competitors. A great amount of effort and pride was shown by Emmale Americano, Monique Moreno, Reyna Montenegro, and Andie Anders who have accept the challenge of competing for our Coed team we are presenting to our competition this year.

We are young and the majority of our team is made up of Freshman athletes that have an immense amount of potential and talent. This team is establishing a culture of “Team First” and exhibiting qualities that all Hemet Bulldog athletes should adhere to. I can not express enough how proud our coaching staff is of the effort and dedication our Bulldogs have. Even though we did not win on the scoreboard our young athletes have begun the process to establish a great culture and become a program to be reckoned with. Please reach out to your student athletes and let them know you support them. Special recognition for our match winners last night Dakota Rhodes won by pin in the second period, Daniel Mendoza won by major decision, Ryder Rhodes won by pin in the second period, and Andie Anders won by pin in the first period. Please let the rest of our wrestlers know you support them as well.
